

OXFORD this 11. of June. 1644.

Hereas by an Order bearing date the 8th of this instant June, it was Ordered, that all the Inhabitants and persons resident within this City, should at their perils within seven dayes after the date thereof, provide and lay in for their families three moneths provision of Corne and other Victualls. Now that there may be a full execution of that resolution; It is Ordered, that M. Vice-chancellour appoynt honest and fit persons on Monday next to search, examine, and view the severall Colledges and Halls, and certifie this Board in writing, what provisions of Victualls is there made by the severall persons and Families Inhabiting in the said Colledges and Halls, with the names of the persons, and number of the Families, that the proportion of provision may be judged. And M. Thomas Nevill, M. William Loving, Aldetman Charles, and Captaine Bowman are likewise appointed the same day to search, examine, and view the provisions laid in by the severall Inhabitants of what degree soever, of and in this Citie or Suburbs thereof; And to certifie us the number of the persons within the severall Families and what Provisions are laid in for the support of the said Families, according to the former Order, That all those who neglect to conforme themselves to the directions aforesaid may be put out of the Towne as persons justly to be suspected, which shall be strictly put in practise,

Cottingham.	Hertford.	Hen. Dover.	Suffex.
Dunsmore.	Seymour.	Ch. Hatton.
Ed. Nicholas.	Io. Bankes.	Ed. Hyde.	